

BEAVER DAY 2010

Come out to Gus Blass Scout Reservation-Camp Rockefeller for an action-packed day of fun, fellowship, and food! Beaver Day is an opportunity for all Quapaw Area Council Scouts and Scouters to get camp ready for upcoming events. Registration will begin on the evening of Friday, March 19, 2010 at 7:00pm. Look for a delicious evening cracker barrel and fellowship activities. The morning of Saturday, March 20 will be kicked off with a hardy breakfast. Work projects will begin at 8:00am and will be followed by lunch at 12:00pm. To register for this event, please contact Kim Brainard at the Quapaw Area Council Office at 501-664-4780 ext 225. Please RSVP with the council office. Thanks!

Gus Blass Scout Reservation-Camp Rockefeller is located approximately three miles off of majestic Arkansas Highway 65 in Damascus, Arkansas. For step-by-step directions, please use the driving link on the council website—www.quapawbsa.org. The camp address is 408 Scout Drive, Damascus, Arkansas 72039.

Highlights

- ◆ Work projects will take place throughout main camp and may spill over to short-term camping area and the Donald W. Reynolds Scout Training Center.
- ◆ All participants will receive an official Quapaw Area Council “Beaver Day” patch.
- ◆ We will not hold Beaver Day in the fall.

Quapaw Area Council
3220 Cantrell Road
Little Rock, Arkansas 72202

