John Fordyce Legacy Award

Nomination Form

The John Fordyce Legacy Award was created in 2001 to recognize volunteers who have dedicated many years of service has had a profound impact on Scouts, inspiring them as adults to serve as Scout volunteer leaders Whose dedication and leadership has served to perpetuate the Scouting movement, providing intergenerational continuity of leadership.

Doak Jacoway, an Eagle Scout from Quapaw Area Council and President of the Denver Area Council, requested that this award be named in honor of his own Scoutmaster from Troop 7, chartered to St. Mark's Episcopal Church of Little Rock, who had played such an important role in his own life … John Fordyce

Name: _____ Troop: _____

Address: _____

City: _____ State: _____ ZIP: _____

Years in Scouting: _____ Years as Scoutmaster: _____

Impact on Scouting: _____